1. Officials of the Chinese Embassy are encountering difficulty in collecting campaign contributions from members of the Philippine Chinese community for Philippine political parties.<sup>1</sup>
2. By the end of October 1951, Chinese Embassy officials had collected a total of ₱70,000 for the Liberal Party campaign and ₱20,000 for the Nacionalista campaign. However, Chinese contributors have pledged a total of approximately ₱200,000 to be divided between the two parties.

25X1A

25X1A 1. [REDACTED] Comment. [REDACTED] reported on efforts of Nationalist Ambassador CH'EN Chih-p'ing to secure campaign contributions for the Liberal and Nacionalista Parties from members of the Philippine Chinese community.

25X1A [REDACTED] Comment. Philippine Chinese continue to display an unwillingness to pay tribute in the form of election contributions in default of hopes that either Party will refrain from anti-Chinese legislation and action following the election.
